

Pledges Liven Lisner In Annual Original Skits

• SORORITY PLEDGES of the University will once again present their annual Goat Show at Lisner Auditorium, December 10 at 8:15 p. m. Written and produced by the pledges, the show is a series of skits that traditionally satirizes anything from campus activities to national affairs.

The skits in the order of their presentation are: "All This and Heaven Too," Pi Beta Phi; "Chi O Was There," Chi Omega; "Television in Technicolor," Sigma Kappa; "Cindy Lou," Kappa Alpha Theta; "Which Comes First, the Rooster or the Booster?" Kappa Kappa Gamma; "The Farmer's Merry-Go-Round," Phi Sigma Sigma; "Yesterday's Memories," Alpha Delta Phi; "Hamlet," Phi Mu; "Creeping Greeks," Delta Gamma; "Temptation (?) Ballet," Delta Zeta; "Why Does This Have To Happen to Us?" Kappa Delta; "Old Smokey," Zeta Tau Alpha.

Mr. Carr Bartleson Lavell, Assistant Dean of the Junior College, Miss Agnes DeLane, and Mr. Edward P. Mangum, Assistant Professor of Speech, will choose the three best skits. The prizes will be awarded on the basis of cleverness, originality, presentation and timing, and audience appeal.

First prize is a loving cup won last year by Phi Sigma Sigma with a skit entitled "National Party Convention—Pre-election." Second prize went to Sigma Kappa for "The Night Before."

Tickets at $25 each will be on sale at the Lisner Auditorium box office this week from 1 to 5 p. m.

Frosh Follies Tryouts Set For Next Week

• TRYOUTS for the Freshman Follies will be held in Columbian House on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, December 14, 16, and 17, from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. On Wednesday, December 15, the auditions will be held in the evening from 7 to 9. Refreshments will be served at the auditions.

Singers, dancers, musicians, and special acts are needed for the program. For further information, attend the Freshman class meeting on Wednesday, December 8.

Players Keep Large Audiences Laughing With Production's Fast-Moving Dialogue

By JUDY QUEEN

• GAMBOLING through three high-spirited acts of "John Loves Mary," Dr. Natalie White's cast of 10 actors not only seemed to enjoy themselves tremendously but also gave their audiences one laugh after another last Friday and Saturday nights in Lisner Auditorium.

Norman Krasna's play is, of course, an unpretentious little farce with no message and no illusions of great theatre. It thoroughly burlesques certain standard theatrical types and requires an exaggerated, unrestrained style of acting for most effective presentation. The cast made the most of its opportunity.

Actors Attempt Comedy

Tempo of the play was rapid with few lags between gags. Indeed, this smooth pacing, while generating the most out of each laugh line before moving on to the next, smothered certain lines which might have clarified the complicated plot.

Religious Club Sponsors Drive For Overseas

• ALLEVIATING the book shortage of universities overseas is the purpose of the Westminster Foundation book drive which begins tomorrow. Sponsored by the World Student Service Fund, the drive will continue until the Christmas holidays.

Large box and barrel containers will be placed in the main halls of Buildings C and D, the Student Club, Stockton and Corcoran Halls, so that students may deposit their book contributions for the students overseas.

During the war in Europe and the Far East many libraries were destroyed, causing serious book famine. In India and China it is necessary to mimeograph copies of books in order to supply depleted editions.

These foreign students need standard, fairly recent texts, particularly in English literature, chemistry, physics, history, and sociology. There is less demand for mathematics and language books although these are required in some parts.

Books which are the most difficult for these students to obtain are in specialized and professional fields such as medicine, engineering, and business. Other fields, including home economics, industrial arts, music, religion, and ethics also need to be covered.

World Student Service is an international organization whose American branch was started in 1937. With the slogan "Three R's for Peace—Relief, Rehabilitation, and Reconstruction," the Service Fund makes its appeal for books primarily to students in the United States, but it also solicits books from the general public. The activities of the World Student Service Fund extend to all the war-devastated areas of the world.

Leads Played With Gusto

Playing the leads, Eugene Picciano and Catherine ("Chachi") Hall romped through their extraverted roles with gusto. Picciano, in a part that depended on clear projection of his farcical lines, double takes, and the entire gamut of facial expressions, never missed a thing. Chachi was alternately appealing as a kitten in the love scenes and temperamental as a tigress when the complexities of the plot indicated that John no longer loved Mary.

As John's bemused buddy, with his wife having a baby and his old love planning to marry him, Tom Walker was both sympathetic and amusing. Harriet Hulfish, Pericles King, Myron Solter, and Robert Reardon handled capably rolls which were standard Hollywood clichés.

Special credit should go to Robert Stevens for an attractive setting, entirely in keeping with the mood of the play.

Dr. White will take her troupe to Fort Belvoir on December 9, to Quantico December 14, and to the University of Virginia on December 14 for additional performances. The play has already been presented at Walter Reed Hospital and the National Naval Medical Center at Bethesda.

Two University Nominees Win Tri-U Queen Contest

• JEANNE RHODES, Queen of the Frostbite Regatta, receives a cup from Mrs. Sid Margolis at the Ball Saturday, with Fred Fortugno, chairman of the dance committee, looking on. Jeanne, a Kappa pledge, was sponsored by Kappa Alpha.

Frostbite Queen Jeanne Rhodes Crowned at Ball

• ALTHOUGH the Colonials didn't win the regatta they led all others in the beauty division. The two University nominees, Jeanne Rhodes and Betty Kline, took the first two positions for Queen of the Frostbite Regatta. Other candidates were Boole T. Patterson and "Liz" Smith representing the University of Maryland and Ileana Sera and Nancy Dollo for Georgetown. The final judging took place Saturday morning at the Doll House with Admiral Charles L. Brand and WRC's wake-up man Bill Herson presiding. The winner and runner-up are both members of Kappa Gamma. Miss Rhodes, the Queen, was sponsored by Kappa Alpha, and Miss Kline was sponsored by her own sorority.

At the Frostbite Ball, held at the Bethesda Country Club, the Queen was crowned with white carnations by the University Sailing Association Rear-Commodore Fred Fortugno, and Mrs. Sid Margolis presented the Dave Margolis Cup, which Miss Rhodes will keep until next year when she will pass it along to her successor.

Following the coronation, the Kappa Alpha Rebels Quartet took over and entertained the overflow crowd with many popular hits of yesteryear. Dick Truitt's orchestra provided music for dancing.

The whole affair was under the direction of Fred Fortugno of the University, Jack Martin of Maryland, and Bud Roher of Georgetown.

Constitution To Be Revised At All-U Meeting

• STUDENT COUNCIL announces an All-University meeting for the purpose of receiving suggestions for changes in the Constitution for Student Government. The meeting will be held Tuesday, December 14, at 2:30 p. m. in Government 2. At this meeting the Student Council Committee, composed of Charles Lilien, Chairman, Bill Cantwell, Jules Katz, and Fritz Kahn, will receive all ideas for changes which students wish to present.

The Student Council is planning the establishment in the near future of a Council of Organizations of Vice-Presidents which will act as an aid to the Student Council. All vice-presidents of campus organizations should attend the meeting on December 14.

Classes To Resume One Day Earlier

• PRE-REGISTRATION of students registered in the Fall 1948 will be limited to one day, Monday, January 2, 1949, from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. Classes will be resumed Tuesday, January 4, 1949.

Registration forms may be secured by currently enrolled students in the Office of the Registrar, Building C, on December 17, 18, 20, and 21.

Benefits Discussed By Men's Honorary

• OMICRON DELTA KAPPA, National Men's Honorary, considered the establishment of various projects of benefit to the University and the student body at their meeting last Sunday afternoon.

Committees were appointed to investigate the possibilities of establishing a weekly ODK luncheon in the University Faculty Club and holding an alumni social function in addition to the bi-annual initiation dinners. It was voted to continue the ODK project of sponsoring the book covers that include a University calendar and a schedule of sports events.

● GATE AND KEY will attempt a project this month in an effort to revitalize the heretofore half-social, half-honorary society for fraternity men. It will help to push a snowball of an idea that started with the tradition of one fraternity. Instead of following the usual Yuletide custom of entertaining "little legacies," sons and daughters of alumni in this area, Pi Kappa Alpha contacted local orphanages this year, with a view to throwing a Christmas party for underprivileged kids. Orphanages are big outfits, however, and it would never do to be partial in giving out with Christmas spirit. The Intfraternity Council was approached with the idea. They liked it. They took the idea to their chapter meetings, got approval, and are now going ahead with the plan. When Gate and Key got wind of the goings on, the society volunteered to manage the social end of any functions the IFC might sanction. We are happy to see an honorary organization come through with a service to the community, rather than raising funds with dances dumped into an already overcrowded social season.

It's On The Record

By FRENCH CRAWFORD SMITH

• HANS KINDLER, founder and permanent conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra, has resigned. Washington music lovers were somewhat stunned to learn the familiar, colorful maestro will no longer grace the local musical scene.

The history of the National Symphony, now in its eighteenth year, and of its leader—the trials, the difficulties they surmounted—should be familiar to us all and need not be recapitulated here.

Let us go on the record, however, as saying that Washington can thank Hans Kindler alone for its orchestra and for the extensive musical life that has mushroomed up around it. Dr. Kindler may not be a Toscanini (who, other than Toscanini, is????), but he is a sound musician and an artist of the first rank. He has succeeded in building an orchestra of which we may all be proud, despite the "slings and arrows" of small-minded people. Carping critics cannot derogate from the merit of a truly great artist, albeit they are invariably around to dog his footsteps. All of us owe a deep vote of thanks to Hans Kindler and to those who have faithfully supported him and his orchestra through the years. May he continue to receive the acclamation of audiences the world over.

HOWARD MITCHELL will inherit the mantle of Dr. Kindler the fine musical organization, the loyal support of the public, and probably a measure of the "opposition." He was extremely successful as musical director of the Watergate Concerts last summer. He has endeared himself to the symphonic-minded members of Washington's youth. He is a cellist with a sound musical background; he has proved himself an able and competent conductor. Already he has announced that he hopes to increase the number of concerts by the orchestra in its home town. He will continue the policy of engaging first rank soloists and guest conductors. We are confident Howard Mitchell will live up to the responsibility reposed in him and that, under his guidance, the National Symphony will continue to grow in the fine tradition that has been established around it.

• EZIO PINZA sang recently in what may be his last recital here until after his appearance in the Broadway dramatic production, "Tales of the South Pacific." The 56-year-old basso was in excellent voice, a fact which pleased the large audience that turned out to greet him despite the prevailing steady rain.

Perhaps the most striking, certainly the most gruesome, of the songs was Zandonai's "Two Maggots." One little maggot says to the other little maggot: "Devour, brother . . . let us devour all matter and thought, for before us all the world is bound to crumble!" Then there were the two French songs—Faure's "La Prison" and Bruneau's "L'héureux Vagabond"—who, by the way, didn't seem to be happy.

Pinza is at his best, however, in operatic excerpts. Having learned some 80-odd roles during his lengthy career, he imparted to his audience two sparkling arias from Mozart's Marriage of Figaro, "Il Lacerato Spirito" from Verdi's Simon Boccanegra—which never fails to "get" us—and, as an encore, one of the two bass arias from Halevy's La Juive.

His voice is still strong and vibrant; he maintains good control of his breath. Some of the lustre of old is gone, perhaps, but his artistry manages to obscure that fact. His English diction has improved greatly as a result of his extensive preparation for Broadway. Let us hope Pinza does not forsake the opera and concert stage permanently.

Get Your Sarongs, Girls; Shipwreck Brawl Is Saturday

By F. W. SMITH

• SCREAMING THROUGH Hyattsville Armory at the IFC Dance last Friday evening, a star-eyed, flaxen-haired damsel attracted attention momentarily from the rumba music of Ray Payne's orchestra. Pursued by two elaborately but scantily-clad natives with blue and fuchsia complexions, the poor thing slipped and slid most ungracefully, and a bit immodestly, under a table, where her pursuers managed to take her up and away from the scene of confusion, having successfully advertised Pi Kappa Alpha's eleventh annual Shipwreck Ball, to be held this Saturday at the armory.

Traditional with the fraternity ever since the days of the local Tau Sigma Rho, the Shipwreck has long been the one all-University dance sponsored by a fraternity which charges no admission—except that guests must be clad, to what ever degree society and conscience will allow, either as native South Sea Islanders or as shipwrecked survivors.

Hyattsville Armory will be decorated with palm trees, courtesy of fraternity brothers and pledges at the University of Miami, Florida. All University students are invited to attend. Invitations have been extended to organizations, and tickets will be distributed to them this week. Individuals who desire tickets may contact Frank O'Brien at DU-0854. Purpose of the tickets, according to the committee, is to limit attendance to University students.

A Shipwreck Queen will be selected at the dance. The crown which she will wear will follow tradition by being unusual and of a material not yet announced. Beauty, personality, and appropriateness of costume will be determining factors in the choice of a Shipwreck Queen.

• DELTA PHI EPSILON, national foreign service fraternity, has scheduled two functions for this week. M. George Follenboucht, first secretary of the Belgian Embassy, will address Eta chapter at a speaker meeting this evening at 8:30 at the Fraternity house, 820 22 street, n.w.

Saturday evening at 8:30, Delta Phi and Phi Pi Epsilon, foreign service sorority, will hold a joint social at the Delta Phi house for all foreign affairs students.

Acacia Wins Scholarship Trophy At I. F. C. Sponsored Benefit Dance

• T. ARTHUR SMITH, president of the Interfraternity Council, presents the Sigma Chi Scholarship Cup to Dick Berryman, Acacia, at the IFC Benefit Dance last Friday.

• THE IFC now sees the success of its new plan of accident insurance for interfraternity sports assured by the large crowd which attended the Council dance at the Hyattsville Armory Friday night in spite of the heavy University social schedule for the week-end. This insurance policy will be partially subsidized by the proceeds from the dance, while the rest of the money will be used to help defray expenses of the fraternity men who were injured in football play earlier this fall.

Ray Paine's music kept most of the 200 couples dancing the entire four hours except for the brief intermission when the IFC President, T. Arthur Smith, presented the Scholarship Improvement Cup to Dick Berryman of the Acacia Fraternity. This cup, sponsored by the National Sigma Chi Foundation, is presented each semester to the fraternity from the previous semester.

The smoothness of the music was abruptly interrupted about 12:30 by the shrieks of a blue-skinned native woman being pursued by two red pirates. No worry, though; a few of the clear-minded people there finally remembered that the PIKA's are holding their "Shipwreck Ball" next Saturday. Anything for a plug!

Law Instructors Win Battle Over Barber-Singing Studes

By BIRKICHT and STREB

• THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION Dance, held in the new Continental Room of the Wardman Park Hotel last Thursday, was the scene of an interesting battle. Not the legal battle that might be expected from such a distinguished group of counsels and counsels-to-be, but a battle of barber shop quartets, faculty and student.

Psych Students Found Psi Chi On Campus

• PSI CHI, National Honorary Psychology Fraternity, was established for the first time on the University campus last week. At the first meeting, J. Edward Kilgore was elected president. Other officers are Sam Hutter, vice-president; Laura Schapiro, Secretary; and Eve Johnson, treasurer. Dr. W. E. Caldwell will serve as faculty adviser to the organization.

Dr. Thelma Hunt, head of the psychology department, was elected to honorary membership in the group.

The initiation of charter members and official installment of the chapter will take place on January 7 at a banquet sponsored by the members. A nationally-known psychologist will be the evening's speaker and will conduct the installation services.

As stated in its constitution, the purpose of Psi Chi is, primarily, to advance the field of psychology, and, secondarily, to encourage, stimulate, and maintain scholarship of the individual members in all academic fields, especially that of psychology. Membership requires a 3.00 average in psychology and at least 12 hours in that field.

Oratorical Contest Open to Students

• COLONIAL FORENSIC Society is still accepting entries for the All-University Oratorical Contest, to be held Thursday, December 16, at 8:30 p.m. in Studio A, Lisner Auditorium, George F. Henigan, faculty adviser, announced this week.

Any regularly enrolled student of the University may enter the contest, with an original oration limited to ten minutes. No more than ten per cent may be quoted material, and the topic must be of current interest.

Deadline for filing manuscripts with Mr. Henigan is Friday. Preliminary contests will be held December 14 with the finals on December 16.

Representing the students were Jack Embrey, tenor; Ash Musselman, lead; Bud Henry, baritone; and Freddy Anton, bass. Student musical director was Johnny Spaulding, who had been rehearsing the boys all week and perfecting their harmony. They sang "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet," "I Had a Dream, Dear," "Mammy Lindy," and "Coney Island Baby."

The other team consisted of Leroy Merrifield, tenor, who teaches Torts; A. B. Ferrage, lead, teaching Civil Procedure; Hector G. Spaulding, Equity teacher; and James Murdock, bass, who teaches Criminal Law. They sang "I Had a Dream, Dear," "I've Been Working on the Railroad," "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," and "Goodnight, Ladies," under the direction of Drs. Merrifield and Spaulding.

Winner of the song battle was decided by audience applause, and it was very easy to judge the reaction. Spaulding senior's aggregation stole the show.

Ralph and Jim Miller, co-chairmen of the dance committee, announced that this was the first Student Bar Association Dance to go over the top and clear expenses.

Sophomore Class Sponsors Dance For Cherry Tree

• PLANS FOR a Benefit Dance to aid The Cherry Tree in getting on its feet will be discussed at the first meeting of the Sophomore Class to be held Thursday afternoon at 3 p.m. in Government 101. Prexy Johnny Graves urges all that can possibly attend to do so. In a statement released last week, he reiterated what he had said in his speech to the Elections Forum: "The strength and success of the Sophomore Class will depend entirely on the support it receives from the students who make up the class."

The main order of business at first general meeting will be to organize committees and make definite plans for the Cherry Tree Benefit Dance, tentatively scheduled for December 14 in the Student Club. Proceeds will supplement the depleted resources of the University yearbook in an attempt to stave off "bankruptcy."

Bal Boheme Will Feature Pledge Skit

• SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON's traditional Bal Boheme will be held this Friday from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. at the Melody Ballroom in Mt. Rainier, Md. Bob Coleman, social chairman, plans intermission entertainment featuring a skit by the pledges under the direction of Dick Generelly.

Prizes will be awarded to the best-costumed boy and couple, and for guessing the identity of the Mystery Lady, who, like Miss Hush, will be heard but not seen.

Queen of the Bal will be chosen by Don Sparks, president; Cal Dworshak, vice-president; Bob Coleman, Lou Alexiou, and Charles Snyder. Theme of the Bal is that of the Parisian student's Beaux Arts Ball and Bacchanale.

Music for the affair is being provided by Leo Baum and his orchestra. The orchestra will play at a.m. intermission for the pledge's performance.

The Melody Ballroom is being gaily decorated in the Bohemian setting. The theme for costumes will follow the example set by Bal Bohemes of the past in that an atmosphere is expected to prevail.

All the presidents and social chairmen of the various fraternities and sororities of the University have been invited as have members of the press.

Remember to Save Christmas Cards

• NOW IS THE TIME of year that Christmas cards start flooding the mail, so now is also an excellent time to remind everyone that these same cards can bring a lot of extra happiness to underprivileged children after the holiday season is over.

A. E. Smith of the University Business Office is collecting the donations in Corcoran 102. Last year's notice brought thousands of cards, and they were still being delivered as late as a few months ago.

Plan now to save your cards for this worthy purpose. It won't take much to gather them up and bring them down to Corcoran. Please do not bring the envelopes. The children use only the cards, the tin-foil, etc., for cutting their paper dolls. Tell your neighbors about it, too. Every card means a little more fun for the kids, so round up all that you can.

KA Brothers Blend As 'Rebelaires'

By JIM PEARCE

IT ALL STARTED last April after the local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc. had presented a program in Lisner Auditorium. Four brothers of Kappa Alpha, inflamed by the harmonies of the quartets they had just heard and tired of the usual off-key singing which characterized all parties, decided to form their own singing group.

It was four baritones who gathered for the first rehearsal, but now, after eight months of singing together their voices have accustomed themselves to singing in four-part harmony. The second tenor, or "lead" is carried by Arch Harrison who used to sing soprano in a Richmond, Virginia church choir (that was, of course, before his voice changed); John Spaulding, formerly with the choir of the National Cathedral and a member of Paul Calloway's local chamber choir group, sings the very high top tenor; Gordon Beckman, who has sung in church choral and solo works and in college glee club and operetta, sings the baritone, and Fred Bullock, the bass has had extensive musical training on piano, cello, and trumpet, as well as glee club work.

Junior Class Plans Prom, Mixer

TWO SOCIAL Affairs were planned at the first meeting of the Junior Class last Wednesday in Columbian House at 1 p.m. The group discussed a Junior Prom to be given in February and a mixer to be held before Christmas. A temporary publicity committee and a committee to find a suitable hotel for the mixer were appointed. Newly elected officers of the Junior Class are Tom Dougherty, president; Edith Harper, vice-president; and Ann Penningroth, secretary.

The next meeting of the class will be held tomorrow at 12 noon, in Columbian House. The president urges all juniors to attend and bring their lunches. Plans for the mixer will be discussed at that time.

The Rebelaires, when they tire of singing in rehearsal put their instrumental talent to work with Spaulding on piano, Beckman on trumpet (he used to be a member of the G. W. Band), Bullock on cello, and Harrison playing a peculiar instrument known as a slide whistle.

These versatile songsters made their initial performance at the Frostbite Ball Saturday night and made an instantaneous hit. It wasn't until after three encores that the audience allowed the Rebelaires to leave the spotlight.

The future plans of the boys are somewhat uncertain. They have appeared on local television and are planning to audition for the local "Going Native Revue" next year. Their next appearance will be this week at the Pi KA Shipwreck Ball.

Skin And Bones

By M. Z. Seborer

FACULTY GLEANINGS

Dr. Leland W. Parr, Professor of Bacteriology and Executive Officer of the Department of Bacteriology, Hygiene and Preventive Medicine was elected Chairman of the Conference of Professors of Preventive Medicine for the year 1949. Dr. Parr attended the meeting of the Professors of Preventive Medicine on November 8th and it was while attending this meeting, that he was elected to the chairmanship.

Dr. L. Way, not the least of whose charm is his volatile sense of humor, played host the other day to a friendly guinea pig in pharmacology lab. It seems the g. p. liked the look of Dr. Way's sleeve and promptly entered same. Picture the confusion of the guinea pig when he came to the detour and was forced to go back down the other sleeve!

BIG FEATHER

Francis N. Waldrop has made top honors in the county on National Boards, in Anatomy, no less. Dr. Cal's coats and vests are now being let out in the seams.

THE STORY OF THE YEAR FOR THE MAN OF THE YEAR: OPERATION SCHMALTZ

There was a loud hush pervading the atmosphere in the operating room. All the men in white were carefully arranged as to gait and station. Tony DiBenedetto, who was in the same room as 17th assist, manned Scarpa's triangle. The 16th assist, newly promoted, requested Tony, with all the formality commensurate with his high position on the team, to hand him a Kelly clamp. This Tony did, with the proper surgical technique of slapping the clamp into the palm of the 16th assist's hand. The latter did protest—did Tony want to break his hand or give him arthritis? "No, indeed, doctor," replied Tony meekly and circumspectly, while his eyes belied his affability, "all I know of surgical procedures I learned from the movies."

A compatriot of Tony's, in order to orient the 16th assist, added, "The fact of the matter is, doctor, that Dr. DiBenedetto studied pocceta-creep surgery under the renowned Dr. W. Mitty."

Glee Club To Present Yule Concert

CHRISTMAS CONCERT by the University combined Glee Clubs will be given Saturday, December 18, at 8:15 p.m. in Lisner Auditorium.

The program will include "The Christ Child Cantata" and several other seasonal numbers. It is also planned to have the audience join in singing several of the traditional carols. After the concert, the Senior Class will hold a reception for its members and the members of the Glee Clubs in the Dimmick Room downstairs.

Last year the Glee Clubs presented the Cantata over Station WINX and later had an opportunity to hear themselves sing in the rebroadcast presented Christmas eve. This year, in an effort to present an equally fine performance, the clubs are scheduling three or four rehearsals a week, instead of the usual two.

All students, faculty, and alumni are invited to this Christmas concert. There is no admission charge, and the seats are on a "first come" basis.

Radio Workshop Announces Tryouts Thursday for Play

Agronsky, Noted News Analyst, Speaks on National Election

MARTIN AGRONSKY, noted radio news commentator, will speak on "The Democrats Are In, Now What?" Thursday evening at 8:15 in Government 2.

The program, presented by the Current Affairs Club, will consist of an address by Mr. Agronsky followed by a period during which the audience may ask questions of the speaker. All students and their guests are invited.

Mr. Agronsky, who broadcasts coast to coast every morning on the ABC network as Washington correspondent, has followed the recent national campaign closely. The night of the election he reported the returns for ABC from New York.

A Washington commentator for the last five years, Mr. Agronsky previously was an overseas correspondent for NBC, making evening broadcasts while with the British army in Egypt, and later in Greece, Java, and Singapore.

After Pearl Harbor the commentator joined the American forces in Australia. For his services there, he was awarded a personal citation by General MacArthur, part of which stated: "You have added luster to the difficult, dangerous, and arduous profession of the war correspondent."

Prior to the war, Mr. Agronsky served as a foreign correspondent in Jerusalem, Geneva, Belgrade, Athens, Sofia, Budapest, and Ankara. The commentator also reported the last part of the civil war in Spain in 1938.

That Houn' Dawg at GU Game Was NOT One of the Deans

By JIM VAN STORY

RUDOLPH, the Foggy Bottom houn' dawg that made that most unusual appearance at the Georgetown game, was the creation of the rather stunted imagination of Colonial Boosters. Feeling that the head, stolen from Jack Mullaine's, was not the proper vehicle for a houn' dawg, Colonial Boosters at first tried to pass the whole performance off as a bad dream.

However our persistent reporter uncovered the fact that the modus vivendi was NOT Dean Doyle or any other dignified appurtenance of the University.

Making his appearance in the first quarter, the dawg followed 'George' the mascot onto the sidelines with a minimum of slipping and sliding. Rudolph's antics kept students on edge all afternoon as he prayed for those touchdowns, beat his head against the ground in despair, and generally acted as a barometer of student emotions. During the half, Rudolph, the foggy bottom houn' dawg, carried the battle to the enemy, as he sold "Hoya burgers" on the Georgetown side of the field.

Members of Colonial Boosters reported that the enthusiastic reception given this new mascot will insure a team of mascots on the sidelines at all games next year. It is planned that a head more in fitting with the nature of a houn' dawg will be procured before the next gridiron season and that a series of weird stunts and gags portraying G. W. life be incorporated into these sideline antics. Later on this year auditions for the roles of 'George' and 'Rudolph' will be held for those who feel their mental outlook is insecure enough to obtain the required results.

Hatchet Applications

ENGINEERING societies of the George Washington University held their second monthly meeting last Wednesday night, December 1, in the Hall of Government. At the ASCE meeting, Capt. O. S. Reading, U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, and President of the International Society of Photogrammetry, gave a very interesting talk on "Photogrammetry in Engineering."

A movie on "The Golden Gate Bridge" and the "Okinawa Invasion" was shown at the ASME meeting, after which refreshments were served in the M. E. Laboratory.

Mr. Robert Henry (Head Printed Circuits Division) and Mr. Gustave Shapiro (Head Miniaturization Division) were the principal speakers on the development and process of printed circuits and Mr. Shapiro talked on the dependency of miniaturization on printed circuits. Samples of the worlds smallest radio tubes were available after the talks as souvenirs.

At a recent meeting of Theta Tau, Bill Sutherland was chosen as an alternate delegate to the National Convention to be held in Lawrence, Kansas, December 31, 1948.

Kappa Chapter of Sigma Tau held an initiation Saturday, December 4, 1948 in Lisner Auditorium for its newly pledged members, after which a banquet was given at the Roger Smith Hotel. Congratulations to the initiates!

AT LAST—Mecheleciv, long sought after Engineering publication, has been mailed out to all subscribers. The magazine, operating on an independent basis for the first time, will be placed on sale at various points around the school. If you did not subscribe, here is your chance to see what an excellent job the students did in preparing this publication. BUY YOURS NOW!

On Monday, December 13, 1948, the 10th annual Christmas Tree lighting ceremony will be held in back of Lisner Library. The program, sponsored by the Engineer's Council, will consist of the Tree Lighting plus Christmas Carols by the Glee Club. All students are urged to attend as this is the only All-University function put on by the Engineers. Once again, the new symbol of the Engineers (the balloons) will fly at the scene.

HUMOR DEPARTMENT—Tom Tate is our candidate for a future professorship if absent mindedness is a qualification. He never can remember off-hand where he parked his Jeep when it's time to go home.

Make the Camel 30-Day Test—PROVE CAMEL MILDNESS IN YOUR "T-ZONE"!

SMOKE Camels for 30 days... it's revealing — and it's fun to learn for yourself.

Let YOUR OWN THROAT tell you the wonderful story of Camel's cool, cool mildness. Let YOUR OWN TASTE tell you about the rich, full flavor of Camel's choice tobaccos—so carefully aged and expertly blended.

In a recent national test, hundreds of men and women smoked Camels, and only Camels, for thirty consecutive days—an average of 1 to 2 packs a day. Noted throat specialists examined the throats of these smokers every week (a total of 2470 examinations) and reported

due to smoking CAMELS!

Money-Back Guarantee!

Try Camels and test them as you smoke them. If, at any time, you are not convinced that Camels are the mildest cigarette you ever smoked, return the package with the unused Camels and we will refund its full purchase price, plus postage. (Signed) R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

According to a Nationwide survey:

MORE DOCTORS
SMOKE CAMELS THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE

Doctors smoke for pleasure, too! And when three leading independent research organizations asked 113,597 doctors what cigarette they smoked, the brand named most was Camel!

Bridge Sharpies Are Invited To Zone Playoff

• UNIVERSITY BRIDGE players have been invited to compete in the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament this year. Winners of the first round play-offs will compete for the right to represent the sectional zone in which they are placed. The two victorious teams capping this title will be sent to Chicago, all expenses paid, to compete in the National Tournament.

All bridge players interested should contact Herb Sherwin, ADAMS 9873, immediately, in order to register their entries. Otherwise, the University may have to forfeit the invitation. Sherwin represented Clark University in the New England final during '47 and '48, and he guarantees that "the opportunity to play with the keener bridge minds of our colleges is well worth the small effort involved."

• WE WOULDN'T SAY THAT THERE is a big time at the old school these days, but the campus calendar is beginning to look like a freshman English research paper. The I. F. C. charity dance was a roaring success, and congratulations to Acacia for winning the Sigma Chi scholarship cup . . . But if you happened to notice the absence of the Kappa's and DG's it was only because they had their pledge formals on the same night.

Before the Kappa formal, Ann Penningroth threw a cocktail party for the KA's and their Kappa dates, while Marcia Grady did the same for the SAE's . . .

But with all these happenings a record-breaking mob still invaded Lisner to find out whether John loved Mary. He shore did!!! Incidentally the best line of the show, spoken by Tom Walker was, "There'll be a hell of a show at the Paramount tonight!"

The Zeta Tau Alpha rooms were the scene of a terrific party with the Theta Deltas all over the place. It was so crowded they were sitting on the trash cans in the hall! . . . The Pi Phi's threw an open house for the fraternities last Sunday at the home of Nancy Sullivan . . . At the Sailing Association party Mary Whalen drank buttermilk while everyone else guzzled beer . . . We'd like to know how Freddy Fortugno, KA, got ten people in his Buick coupe to take them to George Bauernschmidt's Thanksgiving party . . . SAE's pledge class has two new members—Jay Martin and Pete Cordelli.

The Kappas were guests of their Maryland sisters at tea at College Park Sunday . . . At a recent bachelor's party thrown by the Tekes for Lee Fulton, Al "Clever Kid" Baloga sprang danglely about on the fire escape all evening throwing water on exposed heads . . . ChiO, Keppie Kephart very surprised at her "of age" birthday party . . . At the recent KA picnic Jack Skelly, and Gloria Binzel, Pi Phi; Bud Hebson, and Nancy Groves, Kappa, all spent the day playing football.

Garber's Quint Plays Host To VPI, Richmond Foes

• GEORGE WASHINGTON'S CAGERS open the doors of the National Guard Armory twice this week to welcome the hoopsters from VPI and the University of Richmond tomorrow and Saturday nights.

The Colonials and the Techmen clash at the Armory tomorrow night at 8:30, while Richmond comes into town Saturday night for an 8:30 fracas at the Armory. In meeting VPI, the Buff taken on its second Southern Conference foe. After walloping Quantico last Friday, George Washington clashed with North Carolina State last night.

The Tech cagers bring from Blacksburg, Va., a brand of ball that will provide stiff opposition for the Colonials. To show the respect held for VPI by Coach George Garber, the Buff mentor is entraining for Quantico this afternoon to survey the Tech-Marine scrap tonight.

Coach Garber will bring back word to his stalwarts of a well-coached, hard fighting squad. VPI finished fifth in the Southern Conference last year with a 7 and 5 loop slate and a 14-9 record for the season. Sorely missed from the Tech lineup will be their outstanding pivot man of last year, 6'6" Bob Dixon. Dixon, Jack Chambers, and Jack Shockey were the bulwarks of the tight VPI zone defense. Shockey will be in the Colonials' hall tomorrow night, however, as will the rest of the experienced Blacksburg aggregation. George Washington eked out a 60-58 victory in last season's encounter with Tech.

The Freshman team will play Anacostia High for an opener tomorrow night.

The University of Richmond hoopsters were less trouble for the Buffmen last year; the Mac Pitt-plated squad dropped that tilt, 75-53. Richmond ended up with a 4-9 conference record and 8 wins and 14 losses for the year. This club is noted for its "quick start and slow finish" habits and will enter Saturday's fray a definite underdog.

B. C. Captures Frostbite Regatta

Boston College managed to overcome MIT, Sunday afternoon to win the annual Frostbite Regatta here as the Colonial Skippers could do no more than sixth. Seven colleges, Yale, Princeton, MIT, Boston College, Maryland U., Georgetown, and George Washington, participated in the regatta which was run off on the fourth and fifth of December. The standings were as follows:

Boston College	90 points
M. I. T.	90 points
Yale	85 points
Maryland U.	84 points
Georgetown	78 points
G. W.	72 points
Princeton	59 points

Tom Hanna, of Boston College was the high point skipper of the regatta with a total of 54 points. Jack Martin of Maryland and MIT's Fred Blatt tied for second place with 48 points each, while Chet Peet of Georgetown and Dick Carter of Yale tied for third, with 46 points apiece. As hosts for the regatta, Buff Skippers, Pat Granger, Eric Nordholm, George Collins, Reid Tait, and Jack Smith, regatta winners of the past, modestly took sixth place.

In general the weather proved good for the event with strong winds on Saturday and light winds on Sunday.

Although finishing equal in points, BC was given the Marvin-Gorman-Bryd trophy since BC beat MIT nine times during the regatta.

Coach Hipsley and his Varsity Swimming Team will constitute the judges and the officials for the meet.

The Table Tennis deadline has been extended.

Buff Crushes Marines In Thrilling Opener

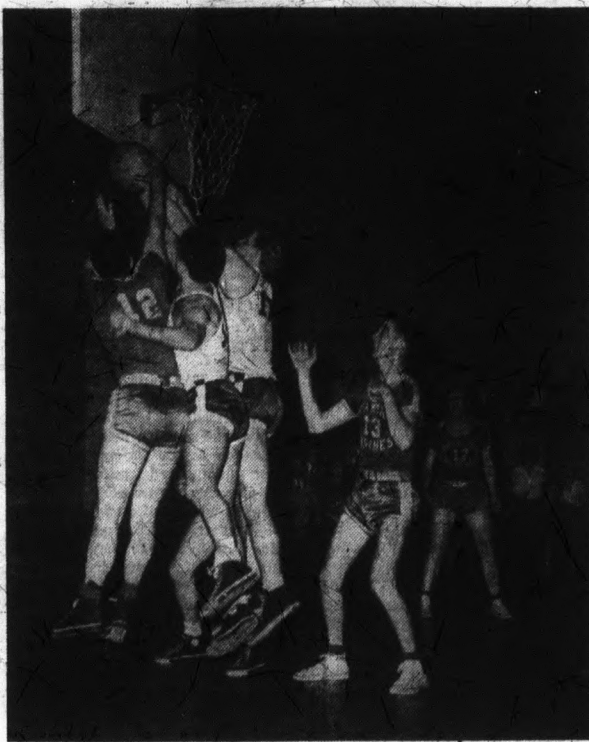

• 1948-49's GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY basketball season had its brilliant opening last Friday night at Eastern High gymnasium, as the powerful Colonial hoopsters rolled to a 77-51 win over the Quantico Marines.

Coach "Jug" Garber, substituting for the ailing "Otts" Zahn, watched his well-drilled Colonial squad roll up a 35-13 advantage after just twelve minutes of play, after which the Marines never threatened. With the Buff team well out in front, Garber used every man on the bench, and all but one scored in the contest. Ace Adler, though playing less than half the game, led the victors with 12 points, garnered through five field goals and two foul shots.

BULLETIN

• RALEIGH, N. C.—Last year's Southern Conference champs, N. C. State, trounced the Buff five 66-37 last night. Cantwell and Haitcock took scoring honors with 8 each. State's all-American Dickey racked up 15.

Some 500 spectators who filled the Eastern gym to watch the conspicuous debut of the Buffmen, were treated to a dazzling display of fine defensive and offensive basketball in the early moments of the game. Adler, Bill Cantwell and Phil McNiff gave George Washington their first scores, and after the 6'4" Adler had made a tap good, the Colonials led 21-3 with just six minutes of the game gone. The tight Colonial defense, led by the ever-alert McNiff, and the fine backboard work of "Bus" Haitcock kept the servicemen from sinking their first field goal until that time. Shortly before the end of the half, Coach Garber pulled his entire first squad of Adler, Cantwell, Dave Shapiro, Haitcock, and McNiff in favor of Len Small, Gene Witkin, Sam Schriber, Pietras and Nuttman, and still the Buff offensive (See QUANTICO, Page 11)

SCHNIP'S CLIPPINGS

By HERB SCHNIP

COACH GEORGE "JUG" GARBER faces a job in the coming basketball season which is similar in a number of aspects to the task which confronted "Bo" Rowland this past fall in respect to Colonial football. "Jug" filling in for Coach Zahn who lies ill at the University Hospital, finds himself at the helm of a Colonial team for the first time. In less than a week, the George Washington alumnus had to acquaint himself with the unfamiliar group of hoopsters, and he had to have his squad ready for the opener last Friday night. Just as Rowland met a vigorous list of opponents, temporary Coach Garber will have to face a schedule that is extremely more difficult than those of recent previous George Washington basketball seasons.

Due to the regretful circumstance of Otto Zahn's illness, "Jug" might well have to lead this team through the greater part of the Colonial schedule, a schedule which includes such court powers as Navy, Temple, Manhattan and home and home series with North Carolina, and N. C. State. If "Jug" Garber can meet with as much relative success in respect to basketball as "Bo" Rowland has encountered with football, we can be sure of another outstanding hoop record.

It looks as though Coach Rowland will be up against it again next year. The 1949 football squad, just announced, reads much the same as the heavy one of the past season, with a few notable changes.

September 24 Virginia there	October 22 W&L here
October 1 VMI there	October 29 Lafayette here
October 8 Kansas there	November 5 Maryland there
October 15 VPI VPI there	November 12 Duke there

Wake Forest has been dropped, as well as the Citadel, and Washington and Lee has been added to make it a nine game season. However, once again there are no open weekends for rest and recuperation. We open at Virginia and there are four games before the Colonials return to Griffith Stadium. One more observation—there are two heavy opponents, Maryland and Duke, on consecutive Saturdays previous to the all-important Georgetown struggle.

Andy Davis, recuperating from a somewhat more than arduous season of play, probably can find some balm in the honors steeped upon him by the nation's grid observers. Our Andy received honorable mention on the United Press' All-American team, a remarkable distinction for a freshman, a second team selection on the Associated Press All-Southern Conference team, as well as a third team selection on the U.P.'s conference squad. And the stellar Davis will be around George Washington for quite awhile.

Due to the commendable efforts of a number of students, Intramural activities insurance has finally been made available to sports participants of the University. Arranged by the IFC, insurance has already been made available to many fraternity men, and it is hoped that those engaged in Independent intramural sports will also avail themselves of this opportunity. The insurance is just $3.00 for one year's coverage which includes

Cage Standings Take Definite Shape After Independents' Second Week

AFTER TWO and a half weeks of play, the standings of the intramural basketball leagues have begun to take a more definite shape. In League A, the Catamounts took over undisputed possession of first place by virtue of their three straight wins without a defeat, their last triumph being a forfeit victory over the Alphans. Previously the Catamounts had topped the Vets Club by a 28-12 margin. A strong Dodger quintet also beat the Vets Club by a 24-20 score. The Dodgers, with a two-and-one record, are still a step behind the Catamounts and can even it up in the next outing of the two teams.

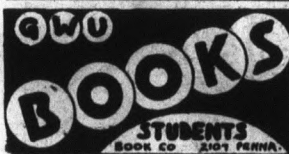

League B saw what was the closest and perhaps the most tightly fought of all the contests yet played. Farkas "A" barely squeezed by a Seagrams "5" squad, which can boast of such players as Phil "Hoods" Simon and Al "The Laugh" Lidsky, by a 19-18 score. Al Brody of Seagrams took scoring honors for the game with nine points. After being held to only 19 points Farkas "A" jumped right back and took it out on a Bradley Hall team as they poured 56 points through the basket.

The highly touted Seagram team finally came up with a win as they bombed the Eastern Bombers with 30 points while the Bombers could only muster up 12. As it stands Farkas is far ahead in League B with three wins and no defeats. Seagrams, Bradley Hall, and the Bombers are all tied up with one win against two defeats.

The League C race still seems to be a wide open affair. The Ramblers, by virtue of their 23-11 win over a Farkas "B" squad, went to the top of the standings, having won two and lost none. On the same night the Epies rolled over Draper Hall.

The Pharmacy School team jumped to the fore of League D but as yet the outcome cannot be foretold with any surety. With Bunny Citrenbaum leading the way in both of their games as he bucketed 13 and 10 points respectively, the Pharmacy lads topped the Clowns and rolled over the Sigs. League E started its season as a Navy five outscored the Schmoos 30-21.

Five Tussles Open Interfrat Hoop Session

INTERFRAT BASKETBALL jumped, into action Sunday with three battles in League A and two frays in League B sharing the spotlight.

Kappa Alpha raised the curtain on the loop A schedule Sunday morning with a 24 to 10 victory over Delta Tau Delta. The KAs led all the way, posting a 14-3 advantage at half time. Bennington paced the KA cagers by dropping through five points in the first half and a field goal in the last half for a seven point total. Don Myrick dumped a field goal and a foul shot to lead the DTD scoring.

PIKA turned on all its scoring power to swamp Tau Epsilon Phi by a 34-3 margin. Jim Kline scored six points for the victors, and the rest of his teammates tallied often enough to undermine the hapless TEP's.

In the other League A struggle, Sigma Chi displayed a strong attack in the last half to run over a stubborn Alpha Epsilon Pi five, 26-13. Leading by only 8 to 5 at half time, the Sigma Chi's pulled away in the last two periods. It was Dick Koester who took the scoring honors in this important tilt. Working out of the center slot, Koester sank two field goals and a foul shot in each half to rack up 10 points.

League B got under way with Pi Sigma Kappa tripping Tau Kappa Epsilon, 28-18. The TKE quint was out in front at half time, 12-11, but the Pi Sigs came surging back to tally 17 points while their foe was held to six tallies.

Phi Alpha gained its first victory of the year over Theta Delta Chi in the other League B tussle by a 20-13 count. This rough fray saw the Phi Alphans leading most of the way. Ten of the victors' points resulted from foul shots.

In League A Kappa Sigma gained a bye last week as did Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Acacia in League B. Next Sunday's action is as follows:

● KAPPA GAMMA GAMMA, paced by Mickey Newcomb, took top honors in the Inter-Sorority Athletic Board's volleyball tournament, held last November 22 in the gymnasium. In the final game, Kappa Gamma Gamma eliminated Delta Zeta 15-12.

Delta Zeta, sparked by Betty Bamber, gained the playoff spot by defeating Kappa Delta. Chi Omega was Kappa Gamma's stepping stone to the finals. Joyce Evans and Peggy Caldwell were the managers of the season's second tourney, which was ably refereed by Independents Ann Nolte and Mary Strain.

Basketball Season Opens Thursday

The current crop of whistle tooters starts work on Thursday, December 9, when the girls' basketball season gets under way. Many girls, all looking forward to the day when the honorary varsity is named, have already signed up for practice. Others, maybe not quite sure of the rules and regulations concerning participation in the ever popular team sport, have been hesitant. For the benefit of all electives, upperclasswomen, and all boosters, young or old, coach Helen Lawrence has released the following words of wisdom concerning participation.

Practices will be on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays at 2 and 3 o'clock. Sophomores and Seniors will practice at 2, while Freshmen and Juniors will play at 3. These are not hard and fast rules, however. If unable to attend during the hour your squad practices, you may play the following or preceding hour.

Juniors and Seniors not taking physical education for credit may elect basketball without having to pay any fee to the University. No grades will be given to electives, and cuts will not be counted. Any Sophomore or Freshman who would like to take basketball but must complete requirements in some other sport may elect it on the same basis, without any additional fee.

Although practice periods are scheduled for four days a week, only two are necessary. Any combination is possible, but Mondays and Fridays or Tuesdays and Thursdays are preferable. Workout the best combination for you and submit it to Miss Lawrence for approval. Then report for practice and help your team along. Many games, both intramural and inter-school, are being arranged and your class needs you. Don't let your classmates down.

Winter Sports Offer Much Competition

Girls participating in winter sports will have many opportunities to compete with girls from other schools, according to the managers of the various sports.

Basketball games with Hood, Goucher, Maryland, American, Trinity, Arlington Farms, Marjorie Webster, and Georgetown Visitation are being scheduled. In addition to these outside games there will be a Round Robin tournament among the classes with the traditional Odd-Even game to climax the season.

Badminton players will compete in the annual winter sports-day with Hood and Goucher, and other games may be arranged. There will also be intramural competition, and possibly some mixed tournaments with the boys. Bowlers, rifers, and swimmers will have their days. The Women's Recreation Association will sponsor the competition and offer appropriate awards.

rolled on. Small sank two quick baskets, and with fifteen seconds to go in the half, Pietras scored to give the home team a 30-point advantage at intermission, 52-22.

If took the Garbmen a full seven minutes to regain their momentum in the second half. In that time, only Halthcock could sink a goal for the Colonials. Finally, Shapiro hit for two points and "Buster" drove in for another score and the Buffmen were rolling again. Little Witkin, who was exceptionally brilliant on defense, made it 63-35 with a beautiful one-hand shot, and then hit again to open the margin to 30 points. With five minutes to go, Moe Schulman hit the 70 mark for the Colonials with a foul shot.

The Marines, never in the ball game after the first 10 minutes, tried desperately to keep it close. Their 64 center, Cy Waldrop, contributed to the losers' share with 23 points, but the much-heralded Jackie Robbins was held to a mere 3 by the sparkling defensive work of Phil McNiff.

In the preliminary sessions, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, last year's Interfrat champs, unveiled another strong quintet by conquering one of the Independent league's stronger squads, Seagram's five, 31-19. Paced by Captain Ralph Embler, the SAEs started rolling in the second frame after a close first period and built up a healthy lead.

Swordsmen Pull Upset At Hopkins

● PULLING A SURPRISE upset, the University Fencing Club topped the varsity fencing team of Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore last Saturday. Sparked by team captain Al Manly, who won seven out of seven bouts, the club piled up 18½ points to 8½ for J-H. Each bout is counted as a point.

Only four men went to Baltimore where they faced the full Johns Hopkins team of nine. Jay Wolfenson, Lew Solomon, and Clark Joel accompanied Manly, and each man competed in all three types of competition, foil, epee, and sabre.

The surprising feature of the match was that the Baltimore team is a varsity team that is coached by an ex-Maryland State Fencing Champ, while the University team is merely a club with a faculty adviser.

Immediately after the bout the Hopkins team expressed a desire for a return match. Such a match will probably be held here in the near future, although no definite date has as yet been set.

Intramural Golf, Tennis Carry On

● In the intramural tennis tournament now being held, the field has been narrowed down to two candidates who will play for the Tennis Trophy.

Wollin, who had won his first and second round matches by identical scores of 6-0, 6-0, and who had then gone on to defeat Brown in the semifinals 6-1, 6-3, will face Smith, the other semifinal victor; Smith entered the semifinals by defeating Guthrie 6-2, 6-4.

In the golf tournament's medal play determined the low eight men. Allen will face Foezler in the semifinals and Dietz will face Kruger in the other semifinals match.

Independents Overtake Frat; Score Three in Third Frame

● SCORING ON THREE THRUSTS in the third period, the Farkas Independent grid squad triumphed over the winners of the Interfrat competition, Sigma Chi, by an 18-6 count Sunday to take the intramural football championship.

Sigma Chi led at half time as a result of a Shirey to Hildreth aerial. Bill Shirey faked a run around his right end early in the second period and threw a long jump pass to Johnny Hildreth who took the ball as it bounced off the Farkas safety man and went 60 yards for the score.

The second half was a different story, however, and the big powerful Farkas team began to show its strength. Tony Caruso passed to Logan for a first down on the Sig 45-yard line. Logan then circled right end for ten yards, bringing the ball to the thirty-five. Here the drive stalled as Sigma Chi stiffened her defense and Farkas was forced to kick; however, on the kick, Sigma Chi was caught tripping and the Farkas team was given a first down on the Sig 30-yard line. Here Caruso's pass was intercepted, and the threat seemed to be ended.

On the next play, however, Shirey's short pass was intercepted by Logan who carried to the 6-yard line. Caruso ran to the one, where the quarter ended. After three line plays failed to gain, Caruso threw a pass to John Neary for the score.

Farkas kicked to Shirey, who returned the ball to the 30. A Shirey pass was intercepted by Glazer on the Sig 40; two plays later, Logan circled his left end for the second Farkas score.

A Sigma Chi pass was intercepted late in the period and resulted in the final Farkas tally.

Marksmen Vie In Pistol Test Next Tuesday

● IN CONJUNCTION with the Intramural Sports Department, the Pistol Club will conduct intramural pistol shooting on December 14 and 15 (not on December 7 and 8 as previously announced) to determine the all-University Pistol Shooting Champion or Champions.

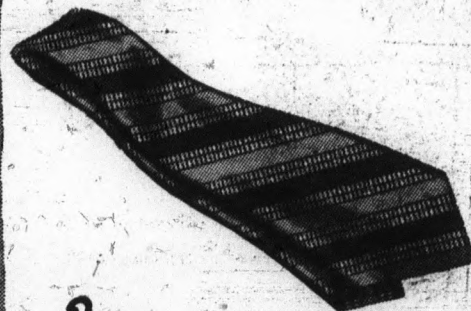

Competition will be judged by the following rules: any regularly enrolled undergraduate student who is eligible for intramural sports competition under existing rules may compete. Entries close at 4 p.m. tomorrow afternoon. Applications should be made at the Intramural Office, 2127 G St., N.W. No coaching will be allowed and all participants must be able to qualify for a marksman's rating (225x300) according to National Rifle Association standards.

Entries may be by individuals or by teams of no more than three. It is requested that entrants supply their own pistols, .22 caliber only.

Two Speakers Address Art Club

• DAVID AARON, designer and sculptor, and Beatrice Takeuche, graphic designer, spoke to the Art Club last Tuesday on the integration of the arts and the apprentice approach to art.

Mr. Aaron discussed the problems of the artist searching for a way to express the spirit of his time, while Miss Takeuche spoke on the problems of modern applied art, especially advertising.
